

CEAT Specialty presents advanced agricultural tire range at LAMMA 2023

Birmingham, UK (13th January 2023): CEAT Specialty, leading tire manufacturer, showcased its latest range of agricultural tires, Yieldmax, Floatmax RT, and Farmax R70 at LAMMA 2023, the UK's largest agricultural and machinery show. The event took place at the NEC Birmingham from January 9th to 10th, 2023.

The range of agricultural tires are designed to cater to the changing needs of farmers and help them maximize their yields and productivity. The range is designed to provide maximum traction, stability, and durability.

CEAT Specialty partnered with Nordic Tyres (distributor in the UK) to display its latest range of agricultural tires at LAMMA 2023. "At CEAT Specialty, we are proud to exhibit our range of innovative and high-performing tyres at this year's LAMMA. Our commitment to quality is evident in every tire we produce, and we are excited to showcase high-performing tyres which ensure increased productivity and efficiency at accessible prices ", said Mr. Amit Tolani, Chief Executive of CEAT Specialty.

"We are delighted to be partnering with CEAT Specialty for LAMMA 2023. We believe that CEAT's range of advanced tires are a game-changer for farmers in the UK", said Alan Lindsay, Management Director of Nordic Tyres (UK) Limited.
